EC0405: Government Regulation of Business

Application of the economic theory of industries and markets to government regulation; topics include legal foundations and economic impact of market regulation, antitrust policy, competitive practices, monopolies, and workplace safety.

Credit Hour(s): 3 Prerequisites: EC0223 Department: Business and Economics Semester Offered: Fall (odd)